AMENDED HEARING ORDER RE: PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF PLAINTIFF DATA

2 Upon review of the answers submitted by Facebook in connection with Plaintiffs' Motion to
3 Compel Production of the "Named Plaintiff Data", I am ordering the parties to appear for a zoom
4 hearing on February 17, 2022 at 1:00 p.m. and arrange for a court reporter. The hearing will seek further
5 information from Facebook regarding the 55 systems Facebook identified that may potentially contain
6 "Named Plaintiff Data".

7
8 Facebook must ensure that the following individuals attend the zoom hearing at 1:00 p.m. on
9 Thursday, February 17, 2022.

- 10 • Facebook representative responsible for all discovery decisions in the litigation.
- 11 • Eugene Zarashaw
- 12 • Ben Mitchell
- 13 • Facebook engineer (or equivalent) that worked on integrating with strategic partners such as
- 14 Amazon, Etsy, Netflix, and etc for the relevant time period.
- 15 • Facebook engineer or DevOps resource (or equivalent) that was responsible for security issues
- 16 relating to apps and API misuse for the relevant time period.
- 17 • Facebook engineer (or equivalent) that worked on Graph API and has knowledge of early
- 18 versions of Graph API for the relevant time period.
- 19

20 Facebook may submit a single or multiple engineers in response to the above. Facebook is to
21 also submit on February 15, 2022, by 2:00 p.m. answers to the following questions.

- 22 • What does Facebook mean when it says "individually-identifiable user content" in the definition
- 23 it provided of "Named Plaintiff Data"?
- 24 • How does Facebook distinguish "individually-identifiable user content" from "identifiable user
- 25 content"?
